JEFFRIES MAKES GIGANTIC HIT

Champion and Stars Give Grand Exhibition Before Salt Lake Fans.

(BY A. R. BOWMAN.)

(Special to The Examiner.)
Salt Lake City, Jan. 22.—James J. Jeffries, undefeated champion pugilist of the world, proved to 2,500 enthusiastic admirers of the manly art tonight at the Colonial theater, that he is not in need of the Oiler treatment at present. More than that, he showed that he is still the fastest through the ropes, and convinced the majority of those who witnessed his efforts that he will be able to put up the argument of his life next July, when he meets Jack Johnson in a 45-round contest for the heavyweight title.

Tex Rickards, the Nevada mining man and boxing promoter, assured the crowd that the contest will be held in Utah. Jeffries was then introduced and skipped the rope with an ease that convinced the whole crowd that he is the same James J. Jeffries as of old. His Herculean effort was all to the sunshine and cheer, when weight and stature were taken into consideration.

Those who saw Jeffries in Salt Lake and Ogden with his Dave Crockett company some years ago, noticed a change in the man when they saw him stripped for action tonight. The excess baggage that the ex-boxer carried in the region of his waist line was noticeably absent. Jeffries was not a skeleton—he's a giant and comes by it naturally—but he isn't fat. He told me that he is within 15 pounds of his boxing weight.

The lines that never fail to follow a life of discipline were absent in the face of the champion. Jeffries has the appearance of a man in perfect physical health and despite the altitude there was nothing about the champion's appearance after his great athletic exhibition to indicate that he is not ready to go the Marathon route in the boxing line with proper preparation.

Jeffries was the headliner, but he was not the sole show by any means. He was the center of constellation of stars, including Frank Gotch, world's champion wrestler; Tex Rickard, champion fight promoter; Farmer Burns, the dean of the wrestling fraternity; Dr. B. F. Roller, probably the cleverest man an

FORT JOHNSON TAKES TUMBLE

Plenty Doing at Emeryville With Accident, Heavy Track and Suspicion.

(BY A. R. BOWMAN.)

Oakland, Jan. 22.—Fort Johnson, the odds-on favorite for the Palace hotel handicap at Emeryville, today tumbled and dropped out of the running. In the early stage the Mackenzie horse raced with Silver Knight. In the last quarter Silver Knight drew away, winning from Fulettia and Jeanette M. Cloudy weather prevailed and the track was heavy. Novgorod showed sudden improvement in winning the third race. The stewards decided to investigate this race. It was announced today that the California Derby would be run on February 22. As it falls on Tuesday there will be six days racing that week.

First race, five and a half furlongs—Gilbert Rose, 13 to 11, won; Phil Mohr, to 1, second; Lewiston, 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:08 1-5.

Second race, six furlongs—Inclement, 2 to 1, won; Marburg, even, second; May Sutton, 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:24 2-5.

Third race, seven furlongs, selling—Novgorod, 10 to 1, won; Sam Barber, 6 to 1, second; Radiation, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:24 2-5.

Fourth race, mile and a half—Silver Knight, 5 to 1, won; Fulettia, 25 to 1, second; Jeanette M., 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:56 1-5.

Fifth race, mile, selling—Keep Moving, 11 to 5, won; Service, 5 to 1, second; Desperado, 2 to 1, third. Time, 1:42 3-5.

Sixth race, seven furlongs, selling—Eudora, 6 to 1, won; Cataline, 6 to 1, second; Right Sort, 5 to 2, third. Time, 1:29 4-5.

CERTAINLY ENDS KIDNEY TROUBLE

Backache, Kidney Disorder and Misery in Bladder Vanishes.

(BY A. R. BOWMAN.)

Hundreds of folks here are needlessly miserable and worried because of out-of-order kidneys, backache or bladder trouble.

If you will take several doses of Pape's Diuretic all misery from a lame back, rheumatism, painful stitches, inflamed or swollen eyelids, nervous headache, irritability, dizziness, worn-out, sick feeling and other symptoms of overworked or deranged kidneys will vanish.

Uncontrollable, smarting, frequent urination (especially at night) and all bladder misery ends.

This unusual preparation goes at once to the disordered kidneys, bladder and urinary system, and distributes its healing, cleansing and vitalizing influence directly upon the organs and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it.

The moment you suspect any kidney or urinary disorder, or feel rheumatism coming, begin taking this harmless medicine with the knowledge that there is no other remedy at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which will effect so thorough and prompt a cure as a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic, which any druggist can supply.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will tell you that Pape, Thompson & Pape, of Cincinnati, is a large and responsible medicine concern, thoroughly worthy of your confidence.

Only curative results can come from taking Pape's Diuretic, and a few days' treatment means clean, active, healthy kidneys, bladder and urinary organs—and you feel fine.

Accept only Pape's Diuretic—fifty-cent treatment—from any drug store—anywhere in the world.

(BY A. R. BOWMAN.)

New York, Jan. 22.—The adoption of a new stock exchange rule, under which the governors shall have the power to forbid members doing business for any person who has incurred the displeasure of the governors, has been urged as the result of the agitation following the bursting of the Hocking Coal & Iron pool on Wednesday and the subsequent failure of three brokerage houses. Under this rule it is said manipulators, who are not members of the stock exchange and whom it has been impossible to reach, may be denied use of the facilities of the stock exchange, much as undesirable are now ruled off the turf by the jockey club stewards.

It is declared to be practically certain that charges involving expulsion or suspension will be preferred against some of the men who are involved in the manipulation of the Hocking stock.

In the criminal division of the Municipal court yesterday morning Geo. Fretz, a young man of about 18 years, was represented to the court to be an "undesirable" in the city, and the judge ordered him to leave under a suspended 90-day sentence.

Detective Pender stated to the judge that the young man has been keeping bad company and that if he were not sent away he would, more than likely, get into serious trouble. The charge of vagrancy was preferred against Fretz, to which he pleaded guilty.

When the complaint against Lee Conrad was read, charging him with disturbing the peace on the night of December 23, 1909, Judge A. G. Horn spoke in his behalf, saying that the young man had formerly been charged with an assault with a deadly weapon and that he has been employed to defend him.

The attorney said he had written to Mr. Conrad's mother in South Dakota for means with which to make a defense, but that instead of receiving word from the mother, a nurse had written him that the mother was on her death bed, and that they feared to break the news of her son's incarceration in jail. Judge Horn stated further that the officers had investigated the matter carefully and had concluded that the original charge was too severe, that the proof would not support the same, and that they thought a plea of guilty of disturbing the peace, with a recommendation that the young man be given a light sentence which would enable him to hasten to the death bed of his mother, would answer the demands of justice.

The former charge was dismissed and the plea of guilty of the latter was spread upon the record. The court sentenced the man to one day in the county jail.

S.S.S. THE ONLY REMEDY FOR BLOOD POISON

(BY A. R. BOWMAN.)

The first symptom of Contagious Blood Poison is usually a little sore or ulcer, so insignificant that often no attention is given it. But when the blood becomes more fully infected with the virus the mouth and throat get sore, glands in the neck and groin swell, and sometimes ulcerate, forming sores and ulcers, the hair comes out, copper colored spots appear on the body, and where the disease is allowed to remain in the system the poison frequently penetrates deeper and attacks the bones. S.S.S. is the true antidote for Contagious Blood Poison—the only remedy that is able to get at the very root of the trouble and remove every particle of the virus from the circulation; at the same time S.S.S. acts with upbuilding and tonic effect on every portion of the system. As soon as the system gets under the influence of S.S.S. the symptoms begin to disappear and soon a perfect cure is made. S.S.S. can be used in the privacy of one's own home and a permanent cure effected. To aid those who wish to cure themselves at home we have prepared a special Home Treatment book which contains much valuable information on Contagious Blood Poison Sufferers. With the aid of this book and the use of S.S.S. a cure can be effected in every case. We will send this book, and also any medical advice desired free to all who write.
